OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES:

- 1) Committee officers shall serve for a term of 1 year. All committee officers may succeed themselves in office, but none may serve more than two consecutive terms in office. A relapse is an automatic forfeiture of any elected position and all signing privileges will be revoked immediately.
- 2) Activities officers cannot be an authorized signer for both the NCAAC and NCASC at the same time.
- 3) NCAAC shall hold regular monthly meetings. Special meetings may be called a majority vote or at the discretion of the Chairperson. Reasonable notice of such special meetings must be given to all committee members. For an emergency vote, a group text message vote will be sufficient.
- 4) In matters pertaining to dates, places and time of Area Activities, all members may make motions and carry one vote. Any committee officer may be removed during their term in office by a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote. In the event that any officer misses two consecutive NCAAC, they (can) be removed from office. However, on the third consecutive miss, they will be automatically removed. The officer may be reinstated by a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of the voting body.
- 5) A new member attending their second consecutive activities meeting may have an active vote. In the event that any voting member misses two consecutive monthly meetings, they shall become inactive and shall be active again when the second consecutive monthly activities meeting is attended.
- 6) Any transaction involving the use of funds shall be voted on and passed by a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of the voting body.

- 7) A maximum of $1,500.00 dollars will be kept in the NCAAC bank account. Any monies over $1,500.00 dollars will be contributed to the NCASC.
- 8) To avoid duplication of dates, the Regional Activities Representative should clear dates with the SCRAC.
- 9) Any NA member may participate in the NCAAC.
- 10) The NCAAC checking account shall require two signatures on each check.
- 11) The guidelines for selecting speakers, leaders and readers for an activity or event are as follows:
 - a) The speaker shall be an active member of NA with a minimum of 5 years of continuous clean time.
 - b) The leader shall be an active member of NA with a minimum of 3 years of continuous clean time.
 - c) The readers shall be clean of all substances.
 - d) No speaker may be a member of the NCAAC.
- 12) The Chairperson of the NCAAC or their delegate shall notify speakers, leaders and readers.
- 13) A quorum shall be required to conduct business. A quorum consists of 50% of the active voting members. If at the regular monthly activities meeting, a quorum cannot be gathered, the Chairperson can call an emergency meeting, as per guideline #3.
- 14) The committee shall select a volunteer to design fliers that meet with the approval of the NCAAC.
- 15) Any portion of these guidelines may be waived by a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote.
- 16) For any activities or events, only the NCAAC voting members are permitted to handle money, tickets, merchandise, or perform transactions only after they have signed a waiver, which will be brought to the attention of the NCAAC and the matter shall be taken to NCASC. Any steps taken in such a situation shall be done only after a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote.

Any form of misappropriation will be handled in the same fashion.
- 17) Any amendment to a guideline must be submitted to the Chairperson in writing two weeks prior to the next scheduled NCAAC meeting. It is important to understand that these guidelines are not stern rules, but rather a suggested guideline for the NCAAC to operate smoothly.
